COLLABORATION WINE FROM J. CHRISTOPHER & DR. LOOSEN

- Appassionata Pinot Noir

Appassionata is a limited-production Pinot Noir from Oregon's Willamette Valley. It is the first wine to come from the collaboration of Ernst Loosen (Dr. Loosen) and Jay Somers (J. Christopher Wines). The 2006 vintage was produced from a special selection of barrels in the J. Christopher cellars. For the 2007 vintage, a majority of the Appassionata fruit came from a special block of the Bella Vida vineyard, in the Dundee Hills AVA. This excellent site, in the famous Red Hills of Dundee, will continue to be a primary source of fruit for Appassionata.
